

TWO MERRY PARTIES AT EAST CHICAGO

Clayton Mark Host at One Party; Col. Riley Remembers Orphans

Of the many Christmas events in the city of East Chicago today two of the gayest parties were those at the Mark subdivision community hall, attended by 400 children and many of their parents, and the one at Carmelite orphanage, where nearly 100 little tots and the sisters caring for them were the guests.

The host at Mark subdivision party which is an annual affair, was Clayton Mark, of Chicago, chairman of the Steel and Tube Co. of America. All of the little guests are children of the employees of Mark plant, Steel and Tube Co. of America. Col. Walter J. Riley, the East Chicago banker, was host at the orphanage party.

Appropriate programs, in which local talent and professional entertainers took part, were rendered at both places this afternoon, and the little ones howled with delight when the actors appeared in Christmas roles. Each place was decorated, had its illuminated Christmas tree and Santa Claus found time to appear at both parties. The steel magnate and the banker had arranged with Santa Claus headquarters so that the little guests at each party received a present, and a basket that included nuts, candy and fruit. At the Mark community hall party, Theodore Helm, who acted as master of ceremonies, introduced Santa Claus to the audience.

BRINGS BRAZILIAN BRIDE TO HOMEFOLK

After numerous exchanges of cablegrams covering a long period, word has been received by William Huber, employment manager of the General American Tank Corporation, of the arrival of his son, Gilbert J. Huber, and his Brazilian bride, Mrs. Joyce Huber, formerly Miss Joyce Keyes-Cochman, of Brazil, South America, who will arrive in Chicago this afternoon.

Mr. Gilbert, who is the Brazilian representative of the Johns-Manville Co., the world's largest asbestos manufacturers, has been in South America for about two years, and made the acquaintance of his wife, shortly after taking up his position in Brazil.

His bride, who comes from a very prominent family, while not able to speak English is a very fluent speaker of the Spanish, Portuguese, French and several other foreign tongues.

Mr. Huber is a former lieutenant in the aviation corps and during the world war made a wonderful record.

FISHES VALUABLE LOOT FROM RIVER

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 24.—Luther Ellis, a farmer near Ashland City, fished out of the Cumberland river a sack containing stock certificates, insurance policies and other valuable papers, stolen by robbers from the vault of the First National bank of Smyrna, Tenn., on the night of Dec. 13. The papers were turned over to Chief of Police Barthell here, who last night delivered them to W. V. Smith, president of the bank. Mr. Smith signed a receipt for $50,000 in taking them from Chief Barthell.

Ellis discovered the sack of valuables while he was rowing across the river in a skiff.
